Elections in Ireland passed off quietly.

Parnell sweeping all before him in Ireland.

Conservatives likely to have 40 majority.

ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAMS.
HAVAS AGENCY

Vienna, 1st.

The Servian and Bulgarian armie have agreed on an armistice for ten days, from to-day. The negotiations for peace continue.

London, 1st.

A despatch from Calcutta from the Viceroy to the Secretary for India, says that the British troops have reached Mandalay, and that King Theebaw has submitted. The campaign is considered over.

Madrid, 2nd.

A Royal decree convokes the Cortes for the 27th. Telegrams from the provinces report the whole country quiet.

PRESS TELEGRAMS

Santiago de Chile Dec. 1st—The Chilian Minister in Lima telegraphs that Caceres has entered Lima, at the head of a revolutionary force, after defeating the small garrison General Iglesias keeps in the city, the bulk of the troops being on the plains in pursuit of Caceres.

Montevideo 2nd—Rumors are afloat of a revolutionary movement at Mercedes. No confirmation.

The greatest tranquillity prevails here. Official telegrams were sent to enquire as to the veracity of the report In reply the local authorities stated that everything was quiet.

Some parties assert that cablegrams have been received announcing a Republican movement in Spain. No importance, however is attached to these rumors.

The Chilian Minister, Mr. Montt, entertained the Corps Diplomatique at a farewell banquet. The Minister will leave towards the beginning of January for Chile where he will occupy an important position.

Government congratulated the Brazilian Minister to-day on the anniversary of Dom Pedro II.

The Tamar sailed to-day for Europe The Rio de la Plata leaves for Buenos Aires.

Rioja 2d—The Rochistas yesterday in a vain endeavor to imitate their rivals the Juaristas met with a miserable fiasco. They ran 'en masse' through the street shouting 'Viva Rocha' but enthusiasm did not respond to the efforts of the electors, and beyond the noise and din, the proclamation produced no results.

The inscription has closed showing an immense Juarista majority.

Catamarca 2nd—The inscription has closed shewing an immense majority in favor of Dr. Juarez Celman.

The five Rochistas who attacked the police in the district of Alto have fled. The Rochista agents are throwing away money right and left.

The Progresista will appear to-morrow for the first time. It will support Dr. Juarez Celman's candidature for the Presidency.

The weather is most disagreeable, as the rain continues.

Montevideo 2nd—The Presidential question is still the burning topic in political and social circles.

The legislative corps is split up into fractions, but there is a strong majority in favor of President Santos' re-election. Many support M. Pedro Carve's candidature. Whilst in minor and insignificant political circles Gayoso and Vilaza appear to equally find favor. As for Tages it is not probable his candidature will survive the mere rumor.

FIGURES OF IMMIGRATION.

In spite of the black financial cloud that hangs over the country in the unfathomable depths of an inconvertible currency, and of the little favor with which the Republic is viewed abroad under these deplorable circumstances, the current of immigration continues increasing in volume, and has reached such proportions that its immense importance cannot be exaggerated. Epidemics in the Mediterranean and rumors of war are sending thousands upon thousands to this promised land of the poor and hard-working man, but never before have we witnessed such a steady stream of life into this country as at present. The steamers that formerly came to the Plate with five hundred now arrive with one thousand, and even 1500 immigrants each trip. The Immigration Department, that formerly could do the service with one small steamer, now needs a dozen to convey the thousands that arrive weekly. Such an influx of bone and sinew in these moments of political and financial excitement shows that this is the great refuge of the surplus population of the South of Europe at least.

Ninety five thousand immigrants have landed on these shores in the last eleven months, not including 20,000 passengers, worthy emigrants who do not land at the expense of the Government. We may safely put down the number of passengers at 5,000 and that of immigrants at 110,000 for the eleven months; and we may calculate the total arrivals of this year at 125,000, the highest figure known South of the Equator.

When we consider that nearly all these immigrants are in the bloom of life and belong to the sturdy class of laborers, we may imagine the immense gain to this country and its yearly increase in wealth and industry. Every immigrant represents a capital of 1000$ at least Viewed in this light, the 125,000 immigrants of 1885 represent an influx of no less than 125,000,000$ fresh capital into the country; and if this stream of life and labor continues to flow into the republic next year, we may coffin the crisis and forced currency in another six months, and this would, no doubt, take place if Congress had voted a less onerous budget, and if the Government turned over a new leaf, cutting down expenditure.

Last month alone the arrivals from Europe exceeded 13,000 persons, against 7,000 for the same month last year. On the last day of November 2,400 immigrants entered Mr Navarro's department; the influx began in the morning and continued till 10 o'clock at night, and the cooks of the hotel were hard at work till 1 o'clock in the morning, supplying the wants of the inner man. These mammoth arrivals confirm General Roca's prediction in 1880, that before he surrendered the reins of power the immigration returns would exceed 100,000 per annum. The President was then laughed at by the lilliputian politicians whose views were and are yet too small for their country, but the prediction has come true: Last year we saw the figure topped; this year we see it exceeded already in the eleven months by 15,000 arrivals.

Whilst immigrants are landing by thousands, wages are dear as ever all over the country, at least in depreciated paper money, and orders come down daily from Santa Fé for more hands to reap the harvest. Verily, we believe that if three hundred thousand immigrants were to arrive in the country in one year, the usual scarcity of hands would continue to be felt. We are now increasing population at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum by immigration alone. We may say that the Argentine Republic is importing a populous city every year, and the effects of such a growth must be speedily felt all over the country, It is this influx that has doubled our revenue, our production, and our wealth since 1880.

North Americans will soon be as bad as the Germans for wearing spectacles. Their own most famous oculists declare that they will be a spectacled nation in fifty years more. So says the New York World, now the greatest paper in the United States. Loss of sight is sure sign of coming degeneracy. T... much ice and pork and beans; too m... clams, gin slings, and dough nuts.

LATEST FROM GERMANY.

(From our own Correspondent)

Nov. 7th 1885.

The National Zeitung contains some startling news to-day about the Spanish-German difficulty over the sovereignty of the Caroline Islands. The following extracts will be read with interest:

"A renewal of diplomatic correspondence has taken place between Madrid and Berlin, but the negotiations no longer breathe the same spirit of friendly arbitration. The new turn in the negotiation shows a very stiff and peremptory attitude on the part of Berlin towards the dilatory Spanish proceedings. Indulgence and generosity have hitherto been the principal features of Germany's policy. Spain has been treated as a naughty child; but there is a limit to patience, and we may as well prepare to hear of an imminent rupture of diplomatic relations between the two countries."

The above gathers fresh importance from the fact that latest reports from Madrid announce that King Alfonso is in very bad health, and that some prominent military men are preparing a "pronunciamiento."

The rumor that Prince Jaime, the son of Don Carlos, was to be married to King Alfonso's daughter Mercedes and thus put a stop to the Carlist conflict, sounds premature; they are both children; and Heaven only knows what will become of Spain before they are adults.

The news that Spaniards in South America are putting their cautious hands in their pockets to buy ironclads for the Madrid Government has caused no end of hilarity in military and naval circles, and the idea is considered the most flattering compliment to the "hard-upness" of the Spanish treasury.

Happily, Germany has no need of begging for the help of her sons abroad; they will all stand up as one man and not only put their hands in their pockets but bring their strong arms to bear in any emergency.

All the German men-of-war and line of battle ships are ready. They work night and day at all the arsenals, and the marine reserve has been called out. Germany is preparing to hold her own in the coming struggle that threatens to set Europe on fire.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

Berlin, Nov. 7th.

Tewfik Bey, the new Turkish Ambassador, has arrived in this city. He speaks German perfectly and has a thoroughly European education. He is a man of most distinguished and winning manners.

Marshal Mirza Riza Khan has been appointed Persian Envoy near the German Government. He was formerly Chief Secretary in the Legation at Constantinople, afterwards Aide-de-camp of the Persian War Minister Hussien Khan, and was head of the expedition that welcomed the German suite at Teheran.

Herr von Rotenham, Secretary of Legation in Paris, has been named Minister to B. Aires. Baron von Holleben is appointed to Japan.

On the 5th inst. the Czar issued an order of the day erasing the name of the Hospodar of Bulgaria, Prince Alexander, from the Russian army list, and removing him from the command of the battalion of fusiliers.

The splendid Mendzibar property, comprising 36,000 morgen of land, which belonged for centuries to the Würtemberg-Teck family, and then passed to the House of Brunswick-Lüneburg, has been sold to Landrath Baron von Buddenbroeck for 2000,-000 marks. The titles were signed on the 2nd, This property was left by Duke William to the King of Saxony.

The extraordinary conduct of the Czar of Russia with regard to Prince Alexander has caused great sensation in Nisch. The pressure of the Russian Government is much disliked and increases the popularity of the Hospodar.

Captain Jungst of the Lloyd steamer Rhein has been fined $3,000 for carrying more passengers than allowed by the standing regulations.

The Heidelberg students have decided to present to the Archducal pair of Baden a silver miniature of the great Heidelberg beer Fass. Although the miniature barrel will only be the 27,000th part of the prototype it will always be able to contain the bottles of beer, enough to satisfy the most thirsty beer drinker The great Heidelberg barrel has capacity for 236,000 litres of beer.

THE HARVEST.

Harvest... the weather we have experienced during the fortnight has not been propitious for the harvest. With regard to the results of the recent rains, we shall not venture to draw conclusions since we have received no advices as yet. In our next we shall dwell more amply on this point. The wheat crop is flourishing in some districts and in a very poor state in others. With regard to the linseed crop, the rain has done more harm than good The blight, it is now ascertained, has destroyed a good part of the crop, and unfortunately a new enemy is in the field—the 'izoca.' However, the season is too far advanced to allow the 'izoca' much chance of completing the work of devastation begun by the blight. Much has been written and more said repecting the linseed crop this year. The opinion heretofore advanced must be relegated to the obscurity of conjectures; nevertheless, we are led to form an opinion from the most recent advices to hand. We believe the crop will not exceed, on an average, 80 arr. per square cuadra.

We gladly announce the success of the trials to grow linseed in the Chaco.

Wheat—The situation of the market remains unchanged and was not even affected by the news that the purchaser of the last great lot had freighted 4 vessels to convey the wheat to Europe. His lot of wheat consisted of 30,000 fanegas, and there is no doubt the purchase of so large a quantity would influence the present prices, were it not for the fact that we are on the eve of the harvest.

The present stock of wheat in Rosario and Santa Fe is very limited; in Entre Rios there is no very large quantity, and a few thousand 'fanegas' are yet to be found in the southern parts of our own province. There are, moreover, several wheat deposits in this capital, but the owners rule the market and have almost complete sway over prices.

Prices have not changed since our last; the fluctuations were scarcely perciptible. We find that last year's stock fetched higher prices if we take into account the difference in exchange.

We quote the following operations: 2000 bags Rosario at $113; 2000 bags do. $115 (highest price.) Several lots from Sta. Fé sold at the Once at $86; several lots at Barracas at $95; one lot at $4 m/n; another at $98. Diamante wheat at $4.40. One lot of Costa wheat at $105 per fanega of 9 arrobes. One lot of Salado wheat at $110.

We quote the following:—

Costa superior	$110 to 120	middling	$90 to 105
Salado	" 100 " 110	"	85 " 95
Sud	" 100 " 110	"	80 " 95
Rosario	" 105 " 115	"	85 " 100
Santa Fé	" 90 " 108	"	70 " 86

Candeal—The market bears the same forlorn aspect which we pointed out in previous reports. Prices are as follow: superior $100 to 115; good $90 to 100; inferior $60 to 80. Prices are nominal.

Flour—Few sales and large stock on hand are the principal features of the market. For some time back it has been remarked that prices in Santa Fé bear no relation to those here; nevertheless the Santafecinos continue to forward us their flour, placing large quantities on both markets. We are led to infer from the state of things that the relatively high prices in Santa Fé are not so easily affected as the farmers would have us believe.

Sales are as follow: 3,000 bags (Tuells) from Coronda at $5.20, sold here at 70 cts. Prices for certain brands are as follow: Cero B. S 95 cts.; Berraz 92 cts.; Carlota 76 cts.; Droz 44 cts. These prices are nominal.

Maize—The season for the export of this staple has closed; however, several remaining lots will shortly be shipped. This year for the time Santa Fé has competed with B. Aires, and Entre Rios will shortly enter the lists. Up to the present Entre Rios has no produced any considerable quantity of maize. During the fortnight no maize arrived at the Once. Prices have fluctuated between $25 and $53 per fanega.

Linseed—Until the contracts already made be carried out, no opinion can be formed of the sales; but we sincerely hope all contracts will be carried out without mishap.

LONDON LETTER.

(From our own correspondent).

THE ELECTION PUDDING AND MR. PARNELL

Nov. 1st.

Here we are in November, and are still busy with our Christmas pudding. How it will turn out, no one knows. Lord Derby has made a most commonsense speech at Liverpool, and has repeated what has already been made manifest by Mr Gladstone and other wise people, that "everything is in the boiling." It is of no use putting into it a lot of crude fancies that will neither cook nor digest, and will only spoil the whole thing. We have only a month before us to dish or be dished. To us make it in the main in the good old fashion—1 lb of British suet to 1 lb of American flour, with 1 lb of foreign but naturalised plums; and as for the sugar and spice, Lord Derby tells us: "You talk about 'Socialism,' why you have it in the Poor-law. You talk about 'graduated taxation,' why we have it in many exemptions in the income-tax, the Railway Passenger Act and the house tax. Finally, you talk about 'confiscation,' well, I did not know it," he says, "and you may not have been aware of it"; but since Mr. Chamberlain's proposal in regard to compulsory sales of land and purchase for allotments has been broached, the lawyers have discovered that there is a statute in existence, and fifty years old, by which such confiscations and for such purposes, are already legal. What more do you want? Tie up the thing and shove it into the pot without more to do. We cannot (says Lord Derby) see into the future. Five or ten years hence, for all we know, plum-puddings may be abolished; but so long as they are a recognised institution, let us see that whilst we are quarrelling over this or that ingredient, our opponents do not walk off with the thing altogether.

How very rational! We all think so, and have agreed to postpone disestablishment, Moses and other matters till after we "get in."

Yes, but what about Mr. Parnell?

He has just been interviewed by an American? He is very plain-spoken and evidently thinks that whatever stuff we put into our mess, the plums will be for him. According to a summary in the St. James's Gazette of a full report given in a Dublin newspaper, Mr. Parnell is of opinion that he gains, in the adhesion of the hierarchy and clergy to his cause, an accession of strength which it would be 'difficult to exaggerate.' 'The step which has now been formally taken by the Archbishops and Bishops of Ireland practically unites and consolidates the Nationalist movement for the first time.'

The Irish leader makes no secret of what he trusts to accomplish with the new forces thus placed at his command. He considers that "not one of the declarations of the three principal men who have spoken—that is, of Mr. Gladstone, Lord Salisbury and Mr. Chamberlain — absolutely shuts the door against the concession of a very large share of legislative independence to Ireland. On the contrary, they all, essentially the first and last-named, are most careful to leave this door open to show that they are prepared to consider the question fully." But a true instinct leads Mr. Parnell to place his strongest hopes in the side from which he has wrung so many legislative concessions in the past. He holds that the passage in the late Premier's manifesto, referring to Ireland, is "most marked in the direction of legislative independence." He sees in it a "declaration that legislative control over their own affairs might be granted to Ireland, reserving to the Imperial Parliament such powers as would ensure the maintenance of the supremacy of the Crown and of the unity of the Empire;" and the Nationalist leader states, in studiously guarded language, that he believes his countrymen at home and abroad, who have hitherto desired the separation of Ireland from England by any and every means, would "carefully consider" Mr. Gladstone's scheme. This, as Mr. Parnell truly says, is "the most remarkable declaration upon this question ever uttered by an English statesman." But "Mr. Chamberlain also, in his own way," has made substantially the same proposals. He "offers us a legislative body for Ireland which would be a Parliament in everything but name." The Conservatives, on the other hand, have pledged themselves to nothing definite, throwing out vague indications only of sedative policies, which are all vitiated by this fatal defect, that they are designed to "let the landlords down as easily as possible." Now, either Mr. Gladstone or Mr. Chamberlain "would probably be glad to throw the whole Irish landlords altogether overboard, if the other conditions of the supremacy of the Crown and of English manufacturers could be thereby maintained." Therefore, Mr. Parnell "does not consider the Tories as a party and their leaders disposed to go as far in the direction of legislative independence as the Liberals."

In short, Mr. Parnell "would define the difference between the declarations of the Tory and the Liberal parties on the subject of Irish autonomy thus: The Liberals declare that they will consent to give the Irish people control over their domestic affairs, provided that certain guarantees are given; while the Tories avoid carefully to express declaration against our claims, but, at the same time, show that they contemplate large concessions to those claims, by insisting upon the necessity of protection for what is called the loyal minority in Ireland." But Mr. Parnell will not give any guarantee whatever, for "he has no mandate from the Irish people to dictate a course of action to those who may succeed him." Grattan's Parliament, as he declared last winter, is a minimum. When that has been conceded, England must rely upon her "army, navy and militia," as her "guarantee against separation." For the rest, Mr. Parnell is bent upon protecting woollen and other manufactures in Ireland, and concludes with an urgent demand for "immediate and large supplies" from America to fight the two great English parties and "landlordism," with which "another contest" is announced as imminent.

This is Sunday, and the news of the day is unusually devoid of interest. The only sensation of the moment is the robbery of jewels at Netherby Hall, on the Scotch border. The papers you will receive by Lamport's steamer, which left Liverpool yesterday, will give you the particulars. The affair is remarkable, owing to the desperate and brigand-like character of the armed miscreants, who are the culprits, some of whom hail from Texas! The English-speaking race is becoming indeed one vast confederation. I send you separately the latest details of the captures that have been made.

From Constantinople we have nothing. What was in yesterday's papers was still serious, partly because the practical Turks have got 170,000 men under arms, and would not go to that expense for nothing, and partly because the accusations and the "dementis" in the Russian and Austrian papers, which underly protests in favor of peace and the "status quo," discover the real danger.

The Conference ought to be now sitting at Constantinople, but we hear nothing of it, and simply hope on that the affair may be patched up for a while; for more than that none can hope who have any knowledgee of the state of the Eastern Question.

A Brazilian physician states that refrigeration of the lobe of the ear will stop hiccough, whatever its cause may be. Very slight refrigeration will answer, the application of cold water or even saliva being sufficient.—N. Y. Medical Journal.

THE PICNIC

The Picnic seemed to be very successful, except for the unfortunate accident that happened to one of the boys: we are happy to say he is now almost better. We have to express our thanks to all who assisted, especially to the Teachers, who took so much trouble; also to the following ladies, who sent baskets of provisions:—Mrs McKechnie, Mrs Henderson, Miss Winton, Mrs H Thompson, Mrs Oxenford, Mrs Drysdale, Mrs Crowther, Mrs Mohr Bell, Mrs Methven, Mrs J S McLean, Mrs Caldwell, Mrs Brown, Mrs C Campbell, Mrs Black, Mrs Fraser, Miss Anderson, Mrs Begg, Mrs Southam, Mrs Mackinlay, Mrs Underwood, Mrs George Grant, Mr Gebbie, Mr Farrar, Mrs Ackerley. And to Misses Riddle Mrs Adam Cowes, Mrs Wallace, Mrs Davidson, Mrs Hill, Mrs Joseph Drysdale, Miss Milne, Mrs Mitchell, Mrs John Cowes, Mr MacCallum, Mrs W McClymont, Mrs George Bell, Mrs Beckwith, Mrs Runciman, Mrs Campbell, Mr Grant, Mr James Shaw, Mrs James Dodd-, Mr Ansaldi, Mrs Froggatt, Miss Cook, Mr Heggei, Mrs Dougal, Mr Hogg, Mrs Hilse, Mrs Miller, Mrs B McClymont, Mrs R Clark, Mrs Salmond, Mrs John Shaw, Mrs Barbour, Mr Mailer, Mrs Reade, Mrs Roberts, Miss Speed, Mrs Brigham, Mr Hampson, Mrs Kitchin, Miss Robson, Miss Jansen, Mr Sanders, Mrs Thomas Drysdale, Dr James Smith, Mrs Wanklyn, who sent contributions of money. So far as we can judge there will be a small balance in hand.

The prizes were, as usual, given by Mr Drysdale, and the following were the winners:

MR. GLADSTONE ON THE DAWN OF CREATION.

To the "Nineteenth Century" for November Mr Gladstone contributes an article on the "Dawn of Creation and of Worship"—a reply to Dr. Réville's "Prolegomena to the History of Religions." Dr. Réville denied an authoritative inspired character to the first book of the Pentateuch, and argued "that an appeal to the supernatural is per se inadmissible; that a Divine revelation, containing the sublime doctrines of the purest inspiration, given to man at an age indefinitely remote, and in a state of 'absolute ignorance' is 'infinitely hard' to imagine; that it is not favoured by analogy; and that it contradicts all that we know of prehistoric man." Mr. Gladstone, on the other hand, confesses his faith in a Divine revelation, defends the account of Creation given in Genesis, criticises severely, and with much learned reference to the 'Iliad' and the 'Odyssey,' the attempt to explain Olympian mythology by the theory of solar myths, and in conclusion animadverts on the theory of Darwinism, or evolution. He writes:

"There is nothing in the criticisms of Dr. Réville but what rather tends to confirm than to impair the old-fashioned belief that there is a revelation in the Book of Genesis.... I understand the stages of the majestic process described in the Book of Genesis to be in general outline as follows: 1. The point of departure is the formless mass, created by God, out of which the earth was shaped and constituted a thing of individual existence (verses 1, 2.) 2. The detachment and collection of light, leaving in darkness as it proceeded the still chaotic mass from which it was detached (verses 3—5.) The narrative assigning a space of time to each process appears to show that each was gradual, not instantaneous. 3. The detachment of light from darkness is followed by the detachment of wet from dry, and of solid from liquid, in the firmament, and on the face of the earth. Each of the operations occupies a 'day;' and the conditions of vegetable life, as known to us by experience, being now provided, the order of the vegetable kingdom had begun (verses 6—13). 4. Next comes the presentation to us of the heavenly bodies, sun, moon, and stars, in their final forms, when the completion of the process of light-collection and concentration in the sun, and the due clearing of the intervening spaces, had enabled the central orb to illuminate us both with direct and with reflected light (verses 14—19.) 5. So far, we have been busy only with the adjustment of material agencies. We now arrive at the dawn of animated being and a great transition seems to be marked as a kind of recommencement of the work, for the name of creation is again introduced. God created (a) The water-population; (b) The air-population. And they receive His benediction (verses 20—23). 6. Pursuing this regular progression from the lower to the higher, from the simple to the complex, the text now gives us the work of the sixth 'day,' which supplies the land-population, air and water having already been supplied. But in it there is a sub-division, and the transition from (c) animal to (d) man, like the transition from inanimate to animate, is again marked as a great occasion, a kind of recommencement. For this purpose the word "create" is a third time employed. "God created man in His own image," and once more He gave benediction to this the final work of His hands, and endowed our race with its high dominion over what lived and what did not live (verses 24—31).

Looking largely at the latter portion of the narrative, which describes the creation of living organisms, there is a grand fourfold division, set forth in an orderly succession of time as follows: On the fifth day, 1. The water-population; 2. The air-population; and, on the sixth day, 3. The land-population of animals; 4. The land-population consummated in man.

This fourfold order is understood to have been so affirmed in our time by natural science, that it may be taken as a demonstrated conclusion and established fact. Then, I ask, how came Moses—or, not to cavil on the word—how came the author of the first chapter of Genesis, to know that order, to possess knowledge which natural science has only within the present century for the first time dug out of the bowels of the earth? It is surely impossible to avoid the conclusion, first, that either this writer was gifted with faculties passing all human experience, or else his knowledge was Divine.

So stands the plea for a revelation of truth from God, a plea only to be met by questioning its possibility; that is, as Dr. Salmon has observed with great force in a recent work, by suggesting that a Being, able to make man, is unable to communicate with the creature He has made. Thus far only the fourfold succession of living orders has been noticed. But among the persons of very high authority in natural science quoted by Dr. Reusch, who held the general accordance of the Mosaic cosmogony with the results of modern inquiry, are Cuvier and Sir John Herschel. The words of Cuvier show he conceived that "every day" fresh confirmation from the purely human source accrued to the credit of Scripture. And since his day, for he cannot now be called a recent authority, this opinion appears to have received some remarkable illustrations.

One word upon the "days" of Genesis. We do not hear the authority of Scripture impeached on the ground that it assigns to the Almighty eyes and ears, hands, arms, and feet; nay, even the emotions of the human being. This being so, I am unable to understand why any disparagement to the credit of the sacred books should ensue because, to describe the order and successive stages of the Divine working, these have been distributed into "days." What was the thing required in order to make this great procession of acts intelligible and impressive. Surely it was to distribute the parts each into some integral division of time, having the character of something complete in itself, of a revolution, or outset and return. There are but three such divisions familiarly known to man. Of these the day was the most familiar to human perceptions; and probably on this account its figurative use is admitted to be found in prophetic texts, as, indeed, it largely pervades ancient and modern speech. Given the object in view, which indeed can hardly be questioned, does it not appear that the "day," more definitely separated than either month or year from what precedes and what follows, was appropriately chosen for the purpose of conveying the idea of development by gradation in the process which the Book sets forth?

SPORTING INTELLIGENCE.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Our brother editor rang us up again yesterday with a wire from London. The Conservatives and Parnell are carrying the day. The struggle must be nearly over now.

To-day there will be a match at Palermo between a team of the Buenos Ayres Cricket Club and a combined team from H. M. S. Ruby and the Earl of Dudley's yacht Marchesa. Both teams are good, and a good match may be expected.

Our camp subscribers should not forget the Lottery for the Irish Orphanage that will come off at the end of this month. It is a well known axiom in lotteries that "who buys first buys twice"; that is, that the early tickets invariably come out with the best prizes. Just try it, even with a fifth.

Palermo is the place for fashionables to-day. A cricket match will be played between a scratch team of the B. Aires Club and an eleven from H.M.S. Ruby and Lord Dudley's, the "Marchesa." Play will commence on the arrival of the 10.10 a.m. Ladies, old and young (especially the latter) are expected to be present in shoals about 4 p.m.

On Tuesday evening The Hon. N. Edwardes, British Minister, gave a grand banquet to Lord Dudley and his companions and Capt. Hothan, Commander of the Ruby, and the Capt. of the Stork.

Hurrah! The Burmah war is over. Theebaw took the wrong whiskey after dinner on Sunday, and when the British troops arrived at Mandalay, he went down on his knees, and the war is over.

We deeply regret to announce the death of Miss Anna Maguire, daughter of our esteemed countryman, Mr. Thomas Maguire, of Carmen de Areco. She was at the Suipacha races with two young friends, Miss Kelly and Miss Sandford, when she suddenly fainted. She was carried to the "botica" and a doctor was called, but life was extinct when he came. Miss Maguire was a beautiful and accomplished young lady, and we deeply sympathise with her family in their sad and sudden bereavement.

President Roca sent an aide-de-camp yesterday to salute Monsignor Irazusta, who came up from Montevideo with Dr. Avellaneda's remains. Monsignor will visit the President to-day.

The members of the leading German Club Turn-verein will give a grand farewell banquet to Baron von Holleben on Sunday at 9½ p.m. The large saloons of the fashionable club will be crowded with the elite of German society and all will join in a flowing bumper to the departing Minister. Baron von Holleben is the most popular man in the club; in all its entertainments H. E. has always taken a leading part and the farewell toast on Sunday will ring loud and long through the halls that so often echoed his voice and may not hear him again for very many years.

Letters have come from Sacramento, in California, United States, inquiring of the whereabouts of Randolph Sassy, lieutenant. In the years 1851 and 1852, then a young man of 27, he used to correspond through the firm of Deetjen and Co. of this city, but he has never been heard of since. As Sassy was a military man, he probably entered the Argentine navy, and if any of his comrades could favor us with any information in his regard we shall esteem it a favor.

Yesterday was a most delightful River Plate day. The oldest inhabitant does not remember such delicious weather at this time of the year. All the other inhabitants do.

We thought Osman Digna had gone to glory, but the cable suggests that he is still in the flesh; at least his savage followers are, as they have sacked Kassala. The G. O. M., we fear, is responsible for the Soudan's misery.

The news from Peru is as hot as the stove. Caceres in Lima means much more trouble for poor Peru, and short shrift for poor President Iglesias, if caught by the rebs.

The programme for the races at Palermo on Sunday next promises good sport. See another column. Craufurd and Huergo's 'remates' are very brisk, considering the weather. We hear there will be some surprises.

Things look deadly pale in the old Mount: Big deficit, and creditors of the State baying for the moon, or, in other words, for their money. They have not had a genuine squeeze in the Mount for some time, and one is over due.

We said it. Over one hundred thousand immigrants this year. This is glorious. It is the first time this figure has been touched, and it won't be the last.

La Plata is the place to do a roaring business in anything and everything, from plants to pigs, paint, or potatoes. Three thousand splendid plants from Misiones have been offered to the Buenos Aires Government for the public plazas and paseos. As for the price, dash the expense.

The Stirling Castle will sail on Saturday. Letters delivered in London in 19 days.

What a shameful fibit was to publish that Mr Fred Brandzen fell dead as he was preparing to set out for the town of the same name, to assist at the 'fiesta' in honour of his great-grandfather. The gentleman is alive, and, no doubt, would like to be kicking whoever started the 'canard' about his death.

Railways in Corrientes! Mr Ancell, who started the Edificadora Building Society here, in company with Mr A. Ross, has proposed a railway from Empedrado to the San Lorenzo river. We hope the Derqui Government will do one sensible thing, by way of a change from its usual course, and give Mr Ancell his concession, and the trifle of land he asks for.

Four hundred 'peones' are wanted for the extension of the Primer Entre-Riano Railway, the whitest elephant in the railway line a Government ever got stuck with.

The Lord Mayor wants the C. I. B. to fine the Drainage Works contractors 500 nats, for the heartless way in which they have treated the pavement of poor Calle Piedad, a most deserving street. It's awfully hard to squeeze a fine out of a properly constituted contractor.

Bravo Jonathan! There was a jolly row on Tuesday night in a grog-shop at the corner of Buen Orden and Alsina between half a dozen sailors of the U. S. corvette Lancaster and twice the number of policemen. The tars knocked the 'blues' about considerably, but had to yield to numbers. In the Comisaria, when the handcuffs were removed, the sailors renewed the scuffle, smashed every stick of furniture in the place, and left all the employés hors de combat. We much regret the rumpus.

Mackay takes his benefit at the Opera House to-morrow night. We hope it will be a bumper.

Mrs. McDougall, the well-known lady haberdasher in Calle Peru, had a visit from the burglar fraternity on Tuesday night, and is minus some jewels, money, and 700 Nats in Cedulas. No trace of the thieves.

Mr. Shaw, one of the ablest railway managers in this or any other country, is going to have the Olivos station on the Northern Railway fixed up so that the sun won't spoil the complexions of daily-bread passengers residing there. It's very thoughtful of Mr. Shaw.

Teaching-Staff

The Staff, which is now completed, consists of the following; and, as will be seen by the qualifications appended is, perhaps the best working-staff to be found in any private school, Native or Foreign, in the Argentine Republic.

I—Rector, A Watson Hutton, M.A., F.E.I.S. Master of Arts ("Honours" in Philosophy, Edinburgh University); Fellow of the Educational Institute of Scotland, First Prize Essayist (Educational Subjects) Edinburgh University, Session 1879-80; and, for more than eight years one of the Masters of George Watson' College, Edinburgh.

II—Lady-Superintendent, Mrs. Hutton, Government Certificated Teacher; 'Queen's Scholar' of the Normal Training College, Edinburgh; and for more than seven years Chief Lady-Teacher in George Watson's College, Edinburgh.

III—Spanish, French &c. Master, M. Edmund Reydams, "Gradué en Lettres," Brussels University.

IV—Elementary Mistress and General Assistant, Miss F C Waters, Government Certificated Teacher, for over eight years one of the Teachers in George Heriot's Out-door Schools Edinburgh; and lately in Viscountess Keith's School, Kincardine-on-Forth.

V—Music Teacher, Miss M A Russell, lately of the Ladies' College, Edinburgh, where for the last ten years she has been teaching the Piano and the Harmonium in co-operation with Professor F W Bridgman, the leading Music Master in Scotland.

EDITOR'S TABLE

The Hogarth has brought out more beautiful new notes for the National Bank. No bank in the world is a better customer of the English and North American note engravers.

The boss Rochista Club of the city opened with a lunch on Tuesday in the old premises of the Foreign Club in Calle Rivadavia. Dr del Valle, the Argentine Mirabeau, was cock of the walk, and enthusiastically welcomed on his return from Europe.

The Prensa reports another most unfeeling case of a man being refused admittance to the Clinical Hospital. The doctor in the case (not of the Hospital) appears to have acted with both callousness and want of professional skill.

The Lord Mayor has written to the Pipe Water President to say that if he will only display a little of that excellent Celtic quality known as 'a spring in the heel,' the whole Boca can be supplied with "aguas corrientes" before Christmas Day. This Recoba-like speed is too much for any man South of the Line, except our energetic chief city magistrate himself.

The Italians have not supported the Panorama at the Retiro as it was expected they would. The proprietor wants the Lord Mayor to let him off the 5 per cent of the profits he promised to hand over to the Municipality. There were no profits. The storm damaged the structure to the tune of 5000 Nats, and the receipts have only been 2,000.

Queen Elizabeth entering Bristol, a speech was delivered to her. The nonest man began—"May it please your Sacred Majesty, I am the Mouth of the Town,' and then, all amazed, forgot the rest. She sporting said, once or twice, "speak good Mouth."

We have been favored by Mr Domingo Calzetta of Tigre fame with a nicely got up and most useful table of the train times on the Northern Railway. His steam launch Crabtree is at the disposal of all who wish to visit Calypso Island, and they have only to advise the station master at Tigre station, Mr Spalding, when they wish to delay the steamer for any particular train. The table also announces that Mr Calzetta, his island and steamer are at the most complete disposal of any parties wishing to spend a number of days, or more or less lengthened periods, in the Tempe Argentino; so that business men can now devote attention to their business and enjoy at the same time the unmixed delights of retirement in that truly charming spot. Carapachay is too well known to need description.

The Central Gun Club have had their last "swarry" and are now going to rest on their oars for a few months. Their next match won't come off until March 1886. Mr. L. Casey took off the prize at the last match; which was given by Mr. J. F. Ballesty of Rojas, at Lujan, on Monday last, and all the visitors were entertained at breakfast and lunch. The inevitable speeches of this speech-making country, and the usual toasts, were given and drunk and the meeting dissolved after thoroughly pleasant sport.

The legacy-to-hospital trick was played on Joe Lopez on Tuesday to the tune of 145 Nats. It is unconceivable how even a born idiot can be taken in by this stale trick, yet not a week passes that swindlers do not make money by it.

The whole town was almost knocked out of breath by the imminence of the duel between the Lord Mayor and Colonel Donovan, but breathed freely again when it became known that the affair was arranged. Perhaps this is the only country in the world where a Lord Mayor would think of making a target of himself. We are very glad indeed that the affair has been arranged, as it would distress us greatly to have to write the obituary of either of the very distinguished disputants.

"I have here a letter directed to the prettiest woman in the house," announced the chairman of a woman's rights meeting. Four reporters on the front seat were trampled to death in the rush for the speaker's stand.

Here's hint for young wives who know more about the price of bonnets than of beefsteaks, and of 'polissons' than potatoes:—

"A young woman, who had never learned the art of cooking, being desirous of impressing her husband with her knowledge and deligence, managed to leave the kitchen door ajar on the day after their return from their bridal trip, and just as her lord came in from the office, exclaimed loudly—"Hurry up Kitty, do! Haven't you washed the lettuce yet! Here give it to me. Where is the soap.'"

It is rather curious to hear that the nasty French custom of throwing vitriol has broken out in Tucuman, and, still more curious, that it is the men who throw it at the women, instead of 'vice versa'. The other day a man entered the shop of Mr. John de Peter and threw vitriol at his wife, who was behind the counter. She was not much injured. Some time ago another miscreant flung vitriol at her sister.

We call the attention of our readers to an advertisement in another column of the celebrated Gudenschwager Toy establishment in Calle Victoria. We understand that the assortment of this well-known house this year defies comparison and is capable of exciting the pluvious susceptibilities of the most hardened dental systems, which being translated means that it is absolutely tooth-watering.

Important Notice.

I hereby advise the public that I have established a Gymnasium Institute at Calle Florida 406, where I also apply the MASSAGE SYSTEM as studied and practiced at Dr. KELLGREN'S well known institute in London.

This system has given the most surprising results in curing chest and lung complaints, and all maladies caused by the kidneys and joints, and in any way connected with the nervous system. Thus the celebrated SYSTEM of MASSAGE is recommended as a certain cure for rheumatism, asthma, undeveloped muscles, paralysis, disorders in the digestion and in the circulation of the blood, etc., etc.

I have also a special class for the development of the body and muscles.

The following is the time-table I have arranged for the application of the Massage System:

For Gentlemen 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.

For Ladies 12½ to 2 p.m.

Consultation hours—11.30 a.m. to 12.30.

Patients can also make arrangements for the application of the Massage System at their own residences.

CHRISTMAS
AND NEW YEAR'S CARDS.

L. Jacobsen & Co have received an immense assortment of the above, being the choicest products of the best makers.

The variety is wonderfully great, and surpasses all former years, not only in brilliancy of colour, but in elegance of design, combining all that is chaste and artistical.

Amongst these pleasing souvenirs of the season are to be found novelties of the most striking character and perfect gems of art, not only calculated to interest for the hour, but to elevate and improve the taste of old and young.

A special vast department, with an extra body of able assistants is exclusively devoted to this branch of the business where a permanent exhibition of these highly esteemed presents will be held till the termination of the season; the assortment, containing valuable artistic cards, small hand painted on satin, ivory, Bristol board etc etc, as well as less expensive ones, will be always at hand to choose from.

Parties desiring Christmas cards to be delivered to friends on Christmas Day or New Year's Cards on New Year's Day, can obtain this by giving their orders to us in time, when they will be posted by our London agents at proper period to be in hand on the desired day.

Foreign Newspapers
AND

We beg respectfully to inform our numerous friends and the public in general, that we are now preparing our list of subscribers for the coming year.

A series of sixteen years experience has placed such facilities at our command, that we are enabled to guarantee punctuality and despatch of quite a superior character.

We shall be greatly obliged by receiving orders for all European and American periodicals as early as possible.

The Illustrated and Scientific papers are always supplied in printed on heavy-toned paper, without any extra charge for same. We only furnish the cheaper paper editions (printed for circulation abroad) when specially ordered.

Catalogues of English, Scottish, Irish and American Newspapers, and other periodicals, with any desired information, will be forwarded to any address, for which early application is desirable.

ON 'CHANGE

November 19th, 1885

We have again to congratulate our friend Mr Lowe on the magnificent sale of his second lot of wool, 1240 @ at 110 m/c, being one dollar m/c in advance of the price paid for the first lot. Mr Lowe has proved that good wool and well cared sells well. Messrs Duggan brokers.—Standard,

ON 'CHANGE

December 2nd, 1885

Gold	44 o/o prem.
Cedulas F	78½
Cedulas G	83½

The gold market this morning during official hours was very weak Prices opened on yesterday evening's rate, viz 145, but immediately gave way, the quotation being 144, when the bell rang. As will be seen by our quotations lower down the price for cash was higher than that for the end of the month, which is regarded in the market as the unerring sign of a fall, and many parties who had to deliver gold on Saturday and the end of the month delivered the gold to-day. The total cash sales were 141,250. For Saturday 196,000 were disposed of, opening at 145, rising to 145.50, tumbling to 144, and closing very weak at 143.90. For the end of the month 660,000 were sold, prices fluctuating between 144.50-80, and closing at 143.80. For 31st January 50,000 at 143, 143.50 and 142.80. Total sales amounted to over one million nats.

In Cedulas, Series F and G ruled weak on yesterday's prices, both falling ½ o/o. For cash only 2,000 F sold at 78½, and G 157,000 from 83½-¼. For to-morrow 11,000 of same Series were marked down at 83½, and for end of month 40,000 at the same price. Total sold 208,000.

Telegrams received here this morning, and dated London 30th, announce that the loan papers were to be signed yesterday, and will be launched on the 15th inst. This news produced the best effect on the market.

It was also rumoured to-day that telegrams had been received stating that £500,000 stg. will be shipped on the 9th inst. fo. the Plate, for the Nat. Government.

It is generelly announced on the Bolsa that both the Banks will draw for the French mail. This, no doubt, is the cause of the scanty transactions effected to-day, as the brokers are holding back until they ascertain the rate.

The Waldensian, of the Allan line, at present in Montevideo, is expected up to-morrow. We beg to offer her Captain our best thanks for the papers he sent us this morning. She sails for Dunkirk on the 17th inst.

For Antwerp—
563 bales wool
575 bags flour
For Vigo—
3637 dry hides
For Brazil—
100 pipes and 50 half-pipes tallow
956 bags flour
426 bags maize.

"Comestible merchants report the market fairly active. They find no difficulty in disposing of their goods.

Mr Nicholas Lowe called on us this morning and complained bitterly of the scarcity of waggons on the Western Railway. It is really astounding that this flourishing railway, after so many complaints during the past two years, should neglect their interests so much, particularly as they have been so frequently forewarned. Mr Lowe delivered his third lot, about 1,000 arrobes, a week ago at Mercedes, and it only arrived to-day. The wool would be sold and baled ere this had he forwarded it by the antiquated system—the bullock-carts. The wool will be on sale in the morning.

In our advertisement columns we publish the particulars of the Brewery Magdelin, in Rosario, belonging to the late E A Schmid, and at present offered in the market for sale. There is no better paying business here than beer-making, and every one who has tried it up to the present has made a lot of money.

The following is a summary of operations effected this morning at the ring during official hours:—

Gold—
For cash 141,250 at 145-145.50-145-144.50 to 144
For Saturday 196,000 at 145-145.50-144.50 to 144-143.80-144-143.90
For Dec. 31st 660,000 at 144.50-70-145 to 144.50-145-144.80-70-80-70-80-144 to 143.80
For Jan. 31st 50,000 at 143-143.50-142.80
Sales, 1,052,250
Cedulas—
For cash F 7,000 at 78½
For cash G 157,000 at 83½-¾-¼-¾-½
For Dec. 3rd G 11,000 at 83½
For Dec. 31st G 40,000 at 83½
Sales, 208,000

Mr. Naeff, who has arrived out from Europe, was welcomed on 'Change. He has been absent 5 years, and yet looks younger than the day he left. He finds the country advanced fifty years, since he left it.

The splendid quinta property in Calle Entre Rios, belonging to Don Bartolo Costa, has been purchased by Mr. Vejra, 156,000 m/n.

The Mint delivered to the National Bank to-day 126,799 m/n in new coin.

The London papers at hand notice the arrival of gold from Buenos Ayres in new coins, called Argentinos, which were taken to the Bank of England.

We hear of an acopiador of wool, who has bought 37,000@ in various lots in Ayacucho; prices not stated.

Most of the merchant received telegrams from Europe were dated Nov. 30th and receivd to-day. Our message from our brother editor is one day fresher, dated December 1st, and is the latest message in the River Plate.

Commendador Vecchi, the Italian Government Commissioner, at present visiting this country, is of opinion that soon the Italian emigration to the River Plate will reach 20,000 per month.

Our brother editor's telegram from London was read with much interest by merchants, and interpreted peace in Europe.

At 5 p.m., the National Government received a fresh telegram from London, announcing Bono General signed. Havas message announces the Burmese war over, and King Theebaw submitted.

Mr. Theodore Tedtsen was welcomed today, and enveloped in a legion of friends on his return from Europe by the German steamer. He has been five months absent, travelling about Europe and enjoying himself in the old haunts of Fatherland. He also visited Ireland and stayed a fortnight at the Lakes of Killarny, and he was so charmed with the scenery and the people that he cherishes the hope of returning to what he considers the finest place on the earth.

The gold market at afterhours still showed a downward tendency opening at 143, sellers, for end of month and before 5 o'clock still further declined, the closing rate being 42.80 sellers, and 42.70 buyers. Between 200,000 and 300,000 sold.

There was a small amount of exchange passed to-day at 47½ to ¾. On France 5.02 and Paris and Antwerp 5.05. Some brokers offering first class paper could not get more than 47¾.

The Rio Negro's mails come up to-morrow in the Rivadavia.

The new 5 o'clock rate was kept to-day and all the brokers cleared when the bell rang.

From the Plaza Once de Setiembre we have the following:—

There is nothing beyond mere rumour about the Banks drawing exchange; when they do begin to draw it will knock the bottom out of the gold market. The impression is that both Banks will draw for the next French packet.

The Custom House receipts at Montevideo for last month amounted to 459,760 pats. gold, which shows very well for the trade of that place.

The loss of a schooner on the Oriental Coast of the river in the last gale is confirmed; she was called the Luis, with a cargo of maize and wheat. She was caught in the gale as she sailed out of the mouth of the River Rosario, and foundered so suddenly that the Captain and crew perished, and not a trace was left of the vessel, cargo, or crew. Another wreck about there is also spoken of.

Our brother editor in London, who took such an active interest in getting the Cable Company to charge B. Ayres for one word, and the Pagaré Committee that also used its exertions for the same cause, may now be congratulated on their victory. From January 1st the charge will be only one word. Mr. M. G. Mulhall's letter in the Times had the desired effect.

The stock of wool on hand in Montevideo is 205,700 @, about as much as in this market The sales for the fortnight there were not much over one day's sales here, 98,200 @, and of this 75,400 @ fine wools bought for the United States.

Lord Dudley and his party will leave shortly for Mendoza, to see the ruins of the earthquake city. His Lordship will also visit some of the estancias in this Province, and will afterwards proceed in his yacht to the Falkland Islands, and thence through the Straits to Chile and Peru.

The "Boletin Mensual" of our Foreign Office was given round to-day; as usual, it is full of interesting matter, and at our leisure we purpose making some extracts from this most useful publication.

Mr. Casey sold the following wools yesterday:—
800 @ Suipacha, 104
700 " 95
700 @ Moron, 85
600 @ Arrecifes, 76
800 @ Chascomus, 86

Advices from Montevideo give the following:—

The Italian steamer Sumatra, belonging to the General Italian Navigation Co Florio-Rubattino, will leave Genoa on the 16th inst for the R. Plate, continuing her voyage afterwards for Valparaiso and Callao. This is the second Italian steamer on this route.

Two business houses in Paysandu have closed their doors, owing to the heavy patente tax.

The Committee of Inspection sent out by the Central Uruguay Railway have arrived at the Rio Negro. They come with the object of inspecting the bridge put up on that river, to see if the constructor, Mr Turini, has fulfilled his contract. The work is considered by them to have been carried out according to the conditions.

The important Line of Steamers Chargeurs Reunis, running between France, Brazil and the R. Plate, will shortly be strengthened by some splendid new steamers. The Brazilian Line counts at present the steamers:—
